

IMAM & SENIOR INSTRUCTOR OF TAJWEED AND QIRA'AT

Allentown, Pennsylvania

JOB DESCRIPTION

Perform all duties of a congregational Imam, including leading daily prayers, delivering weekly Khutbahs (sermons), and officiating religious ceremonies such as weddings and funerals. Lead the community in Taraweeh prayers, reciting the entire Holy Quran from memory during Ramadan. Serve as the Senior Instructor for the Quranic education program, teaching the rules of Tajweed and Qira'at to both children and adults. Develop and instruct specialized classes, evaluating student progress in Quranic memorization and master-level recitation. Provide spiritual counseling and offer guidance on Islamic practices, ethics, and community issues to foster an inclusive, respectful, and spiritually uplifting environment in the masjid.

REQUIREMENTS

- Experience: 5 years experience as Imam, Quran Teacher, Instructor of Tajweed, Head of Quran Reciters or a closely related occupation.
- Special Skills:
 - 2 years of experience leading congregational Taraweeh prayers reciting the Quran from memory;
 - 2 years of experience instructing students in the rules of recitation "Tajweed"; and
 - 2 years of experience providing religious instruction and mentorship to new Muslims.
- Certifications:
 - Certificate of Authorization (Ijazah) in the memorization of the Holy Quran; and
 - Certificate of Authorization (Ijazah) in the rules of Qur'anic recitation (Tajweed).
- Foreign Language: Fluency in spoken and written Arabic is required.

WORK LOCATION

6635 Tilghman Street, Allentown, PA 18106

HOURS

Full-time, 40 hours per week, with a work schedule that varies based on the daily prayer schedule and the religious needs of the congregation. Evening, weekend, and holiday work is required as necessary to conduct prayer services, teach religious classes, and officiate religious ceremonies.

APPLY

To apply, email resume to ed@isallentown.org